

Khalsa alumnus Saurabh Shukla gets National Award 2014

Actor-writer Saurabh Shukla, who played a judge in the light-hearted legal drama Jolly LLB, says the National Award 2014 for his role in the film came as a surprise to him.

“It came as a surprise to me... I was not expecting this. This award has made my day,” Saurabh says. “A National Award is a prestigious award... It encourages you and keeps you going. I have no words to explain my feelings,” he said. The Subhash Kapoor-directed film also starred Boman Irani and Arshad Warsi. “I am not just happy for myself, but also for the film as it has got the best Hindi film award,” says Saurabh.

Saurabh is BA His Hons 1984 SGTB Khalsa College

Adapted from The Times of India 18.04.2014