

Responses From our First Readers L 'affaire Alumni Inaugural Edition 2013

Soon after we did a dryrun of our eZine " L 'affaire Alumni " we encouraged alumni to visit the site and give us a feedback .

Here are some of the several responses we got...

Anirban Roy

Thanks for bringing your effort to my notice and must say that I feel proud of my roots and the fact that I am a DU alum and that too from a course which was possible because of your involvement and interest.

My sincere thanks and best wishes to you and your team for this initiative.

My best always to my Alma Mater and as you have put so brilliantly: "celebration of the Genius That Was, Is, Shall Ever Be The University of Dee."

Warm regards,

It's matter of joy for all of us that "L' affaire Alumni" has been launched.

I have gone through the site page and read all the materials posted their starting from your impressive profile. The learned VC of DU has proved his intellectuality by handing over such responsible job to serve as the Adviser/Dean in your hand.

The list of top achievers of DU is amazing...Hope so, in near future it will add another list of people from legal professionals also. Your desire to make alumni forum on social networking is wonderful decision. It will certainly help to reach across the alumni.
