By now, all of us know that, before becoming a superstar and 'Khan-quiring' Bollywood with his die-hard romanticism, Shah Rukh Khan had starred in two hit serials Fauji and Circus. Even though his debut film Dil Aashna Hai did not prove to be a hit at the Box-Office, it did give Bollywood its very own superstar in the form of Shah Rukh Khan.

Recently, we came across this extremely endearing photograph of Shah Rukh Khan and his (late) father Meer Taj Mohammed Khan, who reportedly happened to be an Indian independence activist. Reports also have it that his father had several businesses including restaurants. Unfortunately, Shah Rukh Khan lost his father to cancer in the year 1981.
