Ramjas College Centenary at The President's House

President Pranab Mukherjee said on Monday 13.02.2017 the objective of education is not merely acquiring a job but pursuit of knowledge.

Our DU Visitor and our Nation's President was addressing Centenary celebrations of Delhi University's Ramjas College on Monday 13.02.2017 at The President's House.

He also released a Centenary commemorative stamp and a special volume on the history of the college, set up in 1917 by educationist Rai Kedar Nath.

He also congratulated Dr Rajendra Prasad, Principal of Ramjas for the last 32 years, on being presented the Lifetime Achievement Award by the Governing Body of the college. He said that it is the duty of all of us to salute such 'gurus'.

The series of events that were organized in the past one year for the centennial celebrations of Ramjas College concluded with Sonu Nigam's performance. The singer performed in front of around 10,000 people at the Ramjassports ground.

Better view: While some were early birds at the concert, those who were late didn't mind taking a seat on the balconies (BCCL/ Ranjit Kumar)

We waited for this day for one whole year: Students
