Veteran photographer and archivist Shobha Deepak Singh has over 300,000 images of passionate moments from the performing arts has put her collection to good use.

Theatrescapes 2014 a book on the best of Indian theatre, has the likes of Zohra Sehgal , Naseeruddin Shah , Shabana Azmi , Manohar Singh , Seema Bandit Queen Biswas , Mohan Agashe and Ratna Pathak Shah at their emotive best and captures more than 40 theatre performances over the decades.

"It was during the times spent at Living Theatre that I experienced the vast scope of photographing theatre performances . Being completely self-taught , I have often strapped myself with my camera and lenses to rush out for an unexpected shoot .

"As a child , my camera saw the light of my personal space , siblings and nature .

"Later it turned into aspiration to play with lights , performance and theatre at the Living Theatre", says Shobha .

Theatrescapes has a foreword by the incomparable Ebrahim Alkazi and essays by Alka Pande, Amal Allana and Shobha Deepak Singh .
