

23 Jul 2014

Hindustan Times (Delhi)

CELEBS' FIRST DATE WITH DU

... Ever wondered what it was like for Bollywood actors who graduated from DU ?
We get them to tell us

Manoj Bajpayee

I first took admission in Satyawati College .
I became friends with a lot of students from Africa .
But then I moved to Ramjas College .
I was never really ragged by anyone in college , probably because they were scared of my face .

Neha Dhupia

I had joined Jesus and Mary College with my school friends Ramneek Pental and Sarita Bhandari , so I was not worried .
But our seniors had plans to rag us .
We wore weird wigs , acted like beggars, sang Bollywood songs and spoke filmi dialogues on the road .

Manish Paul

On my first day at College of Vocational Studies, it was made to dance like Salman Khan :
Topless, on his hit song, Oh ! Oh! Jaane Jaana , was ragged but all in good spirit .
I made a lot of friends that day

Sidharth Malhotra

The First day in Shaheed Bhagat Singh College was fun, but there onwards , the best memory was getting permission from my dad to take my car to college .
My friends and I used to take turns to drive .

Richa Chadha

I studied at St Stephen's .
On our first day , we were to attend the assembly and have lunch with other freshers.
Ragging was strictly banned so everyone was very cautious .
But we all secretly hoped same seniors would talk to us .