The revered , ever - popular Mrs Kailash Devi

Fulbright Scholar , The First Silver Fellow Columbia University USA and a Doctorate plus Deanship JNU India , Visiting Scholar LSE UK , University of Tokyo Japan , City University of Hong Kong and Max Planck Institute Germany ,

Professor Tyagi's 2010 book "The UN Human Rights Committee : Practice and Procedure" pp 994 published by the renowned Cambridge University Press is a landmark study of a very topical , complex and challenging issue and is a must - read referent for students of the UN and of Human Rights in a Global context .

DU Alumni were ever so pleased to learn that his initial months as Vice Chancellor revealed a warm - hearted , quiet , firm , value - based and determined result - directedness in administrative dispensation, including across - the - board digitisation of Examinations and Admissions systems serving over 700,000 students .

He has initiated and steered some pathfinding academic - professional Courses of study and research such as The Delhi School of Journalism DSJ and the Postgraduate Programme in Cyber Security , while also conceptualising the firsttime DU Eminent Alumni Lecture Series "Percipience" and The Ambassadorial Series with the Ministry of External Affairs , besides leading felicitation of eminent alumni , an event underscored as the prime feature of our Foundation Day 1 May 2017.

Our VC also serves on The Board of Governors of SouthAsia's premier AIIMS New Delhi .
