Actor Rahul Roy, who suffered a brain stroke last year, said on Thursday 07.01.2021 he is back home but it is "still a long journey" to full recovery.

The "Aashiqui" star was admitted to the intensive care unit of Nanavati Hospital on November 27 after he arrived from a shoot in Kargil.

Last month, the 52-year-old actor was shifted to Wockhardt Hospital, where he underwent angiography of the brain and heart.

Rahul Roy thanked his well-wishers for their best wishes on Instagram.

"I am back home after a long treatment in the hospital. I am recovering and it's still a long journey for full recovery," he wrote alongside a photo of him with his sister Priyanka Roy and brother-in-law Romeer Sen.

"Today I would like to thank everyone who stood by me all this while, Rohit my brother, my sister and best friend Priyanka, my brother-in-law Romeer along with my friends Aditi Govitrikar, Dr Huz, Zahid, Ashwini Kumar, Azhar, Shruti Dwivedi, Suchitra Pillai and all my friends for praying for me," he added.

Rahul Roy made his Bollywood debut in the Mahesh Bhatt-directed musical romance hit "Aashiqui" in 1990 and went on to work with the filmmaker on movies like "Junoon" and "Phir Teri Kahani Yaad Aayee".

The actor also won the first season of the popular TV reality show "Bigg Boss" in 2006.
