

alumnus Prasanto Kumar Roy builds Delhi's first Green Home

alpix 0765

Prasanto Kumar Roy
BSc Hons Physics 1987 St Stephen's
Editorial Adviser
CyberMedia

Prasanto Kumar Roy is editorial adviser at CyberMedia, India's top specialty media group, where he was President and Chief Editor till March 2012 .

A technology journalist and analyst for over two decades Roy, 45 did BSc Physics Hons at Delhi's St Stephen's College, after schooling at St Xavier's, Delhi .

He joined CyberMedia in 1990, where he created and drove pioneering projects such as Asia's first cover-mounted CD, and the first publication-run product test lab and processes .

He is deeply interested in mobile technology, and on greentech. He created and drove CyberMedia's green evangelization program beginning 2008 .

He has built India's first home to be registered with TERI's GRIHA green -building program .

He is part of several Juries, such as the NDTV Gadget Guru awards jury, and serves on FICCI Young Leaders' Megatrends Committee driving the subgroup for "Intelligent Tech and the Future of Work" .

Roy has been on many speaker panels for CyberMedia, Nasscom, CSI, MAIT, TiE, ISA and others; on television programs as a tech expert for BBC NDTV, CNBC-TV18, CNN- IBN and others; and has lectured at IPADE Business School in Mexico, and the APC Media Conference in Vietnam .

Source : survey .nasscom .in

It was a delight to hear Prasanto on Radio One 30.03.2017 " Square Feet" elaborate on the creative dynamics of Delhi's first Green Home built brich - by - brick by him at Chittaranjan Park New Delhi 110019 .