

Arpita and Paramjit Singh alumni Artiste Couple, Forever Young !!

alpix 0814

Paramjit Singh

Artist, Bachelors and PhD in Fine Arts
Delhi Polytechnic 1958 – 1962

Arpita Singh figurative artist and a modernist attended the School of Art, Delhi Polytechnic 1954-1959.

Arpita has significant contributions through different social and political awareness themes in her art. She began her professional career in the 1960s and founder member of the artists' group 'The Unknown', with other members of the alumni of the Department of Fine Arts of Delhi Polytechnic in the 1960s.

The first group show of Unknown was held at IENS Building Rafi Marg in 1962.

After graduation she worked for the Indian Government's Cottage Industries Restoration Program.

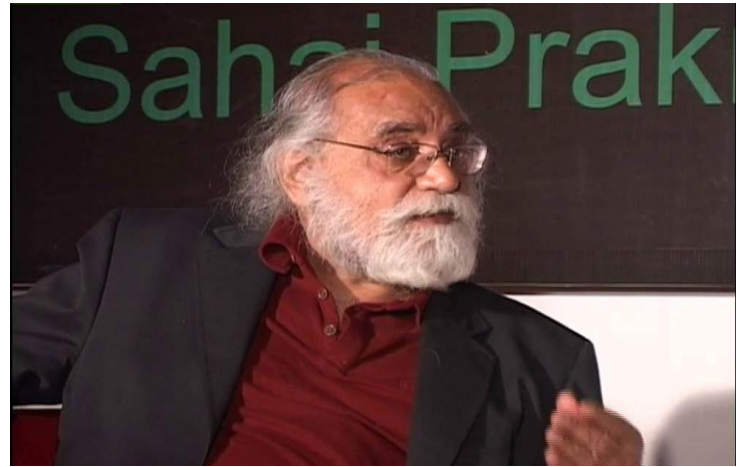

Her first exhibition was held at Kunika Chemould Gallery, organised by Roshan Alkazi, New Delhi in 1972 after which she extensively exhibited her work at Royal Academy of Arts at London(1982), Centre Georges Pompidou, Paris(1986), in Geneva(1987) and at the Art Gallery of New South Wales Sydney(1993).

Paramjit earned his Bachelors 1958 and PhD 1962 in Fine Arts from Delhi Polytechnic respectively. For nearly three decades Paramjit was Professor Fine Arts at Jamia Millia Islamia New Delhi.

The artist fronts her canvas

alpix 0814A

Paramjit in contemplative mood

alpix 0814B

A superb short of artist and artwork frames in creative perspective

alpix 0814C