Billionaire promoter Analjit Singh's Max Group comprises Max Financial Services Ltd, which includes Max Life insurance business; Max India Ltd, which houses the hospitals and health insurance businesses, and Max Ventures & Industries Ltd, which houses the group's real estate and specialty packaging business. .

Earlier in 2016, American private equity firm KKR had backed Analjit Singh with a $325 million funding for debt restructuring.

In May 2018 ht's Mint reported that global private equity firms Blackstone Group LP and Warburg Pincus Llc were in talks to invest in Max Financial Services Ltd for a minority stake.

The Max Group took its present shape in 2015 when the promoters decided to split the single - listed group entity Max India Ltd into three separate units—life insurance; health and allied businesses; and manufacturing—in a restructuring exercise aimed at unlocking shareholder value in its key businesses.

Max India was renamed Max Financial Services Ltd to focus on the life insurance business. Max Bupa Health Insurance, hospitals business and Antara Senior Living were transferred to Max India Ltd and the specialty packaging business was transferred to Max Ventures and Investments Ltd.
