

Rajdhani College marks its Golden Jubilee

BIG PARTY @ 50

5.02.2014 Hindustan Times (Delhi)

TORSHA SEN

With college fests taking place one after the other, it's party time for Delhi University students. Recently, it was the turn of Rajdhani College that turned 50, and celebrated its annual cultural event, Thunderstruck, with a bang. The two-day event saw students turn up in huge numbers, hooting, dancing and indulging in a lot of fun indoor as well as outdoor activities. While day one saw competitions such as rangoli making, group dance (Junoon) — with wonderful acts from 14 colleges, debate and beg borrow steal, day two was all about Mask: The Pehchan — a street play contest with participation from nine colleges; Admad — a fine arts event, and the Battle of Bands. The highlight of the event, however, was an energetic performance by Pakistani pop singer, Falak Shabir, who enthralled crowds with his hit Bollywood songs such as Mera Mann and Saajna, among others.

TORSHA SEN

An act by western dance society Tanz of Miranda House (above) and members of Aveksha, the theatre society of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University during their performance

Pakistani singer Falak Shabir at the festival

Pakistani singer Falak Shabir at the festival An act by western dance society Tanz of Miranda House (above) and members of Aveksha, the theatre society of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, during their performance

With college fests taking place one after the other, it's party time for Delhi University students. Recently, it was the turn of Rajdhani College that turned 50, and celebrated its annual cultural event, Thunderstruck, with a bang.

The two-day event saw students turn up in huge numbers, hooting, dancing and indulging in a lot of fun indoor as well as outdoor activities. While day one saw competitions such as rangoli making, group dance (Junoon) — with wonderful acts from 14 colleges, debate and beg borrow steal, day two was all about Mask: The Pehchan — a street play contest with participation from nine colleges; Admad — a fine arts event, and the Battle of Bands.

The highlight of the event, however, was an energetic performance by Pakistani pop singer, Falak Shabir, who enthralled crowds with his hit Bollywood songs such as Mera Mann and Saajna, among others.

A Golden Jubilee for Rajdhani College 1964 – 2014 : Glorious !