

Police chief stresses on 'democratic behaviour'

NEW DELHI: In a democracy, people should respect the boundaries of law and they should not go beyond the norms of democratic behaviour, newly-appointed Delhi Police Commissioner Bhim Sain Bassi said on Saturday.

"People will get the opportunity to articulate their anger. But remember, we are a democratic polity. In a democratic polity, we have to respect the boundaries created by law otherwise any expression of anger can be too anarchic," said Bassi at a youth conference held at SRCC in Delhi University.

Bassi said the moment people cross the norms of democratic behaviour, the results will be "disastrous". The day-long youth conference had debates and discussions where Bhim Sain Bassi, an alumnus of SRCC's 1975 batch, was felicitated at the Conference for the laurels he has achieved during his career.

" My journey in SRCC was sweet and eventful. I still remember my teachers. Whatever I learnt from them, has helped me in my life," he said adding that he never took interest to participate in debates during his time in college.

" I must tell all of you that everybody who gets admission in Shri Ram College has some basic intellect and basic requisite qualification which can take you anywhere, " he said.

Kiran Bedi, Sonia Singh, Prabhu Chawla and several other eminent personalities were present.

The Times of India
Agencies | Aug 18, 2013, 04.08 AM IST

BTW, Kiran, Prabhu and Sonia are all DU alumni, while Prabhu began his career as Lecturer with us ...!

Principal P C Jain, a stalwart academic of 40 years on campus, is the inspirational Teacher of some of India's finest and most accomplished citizens.