

Shovana Narayan : A musical symphony in colours

Shovana Narayan and Gopi Gajwani

On Friday 13.01.2017 an exhibition in the Capital brought together the art fraternity of the city. The exhibition titled, A Symphony of Abstract, features the works of the artist Gopi Gajwani.

“I don’t paint in themes. I keep sketching and doodling in between. Each work is a different composition. This is the entire musical symphony in abstract,” he said. “I have used different tones, textures and mediums. Each work has its own character,” he added. Those present at the do included dance exponent Sharon Lowen, artists Alka Raghuvanshi and Siddharth among others.

15.01.2017 HT