Films-in-lessons ideator

A physics and film production postgraduate of Delhi University and Xavier Institute of Communications, Mumbai, amateur documentary film-maker Subha Das Mollick is Associate Director Institute of Leadership, Entrepreneurship and Development (iLEAD), Kolkata. Subha is also founder-secretary of Bichitra Pathshala, an NGO promoting teaching-learning through moving images, i.e. film.

The Pathshala socioeducational Movement seeks is to make learning joyful through the use of moving images and secondly, to make teachers and students discerning consumers of the film medium. Through the use of clips from popular films, documentaries, YouTube videos, news and television programmes, and integrate them into lesson plans to illustrate and explain academic subjects.

Since 2010, they have conducted more than 25 workshops for school teachers in Kolkata, and plan to turn 'Learning with Moving Images' into an annual event, and create a bank of lesson plans for teachers.
